

The Indiana Do Not Call list needs to remain the way it is. If I want to do business with a company I will initiate the contact. I should be able to make that decision. I should not have to receive calls from a company simply because I did business with it or an affiliate in the past. Thank you.